

Answers and Comments

Corrected sentence should appear as follows: I like to go to the library for books.

Your students are gaining a great deal of knowledge about where capital letters are needed when they write. This information is important, because if they know where the capital letters belong they will also know where capital letters don't belong. Have your students think about where they are placing capital and small letters as they are writing today.

Topics

Writing Process

Drafting

Writing Development - Capital and Small Letters, Spaces/Words