

Explore China

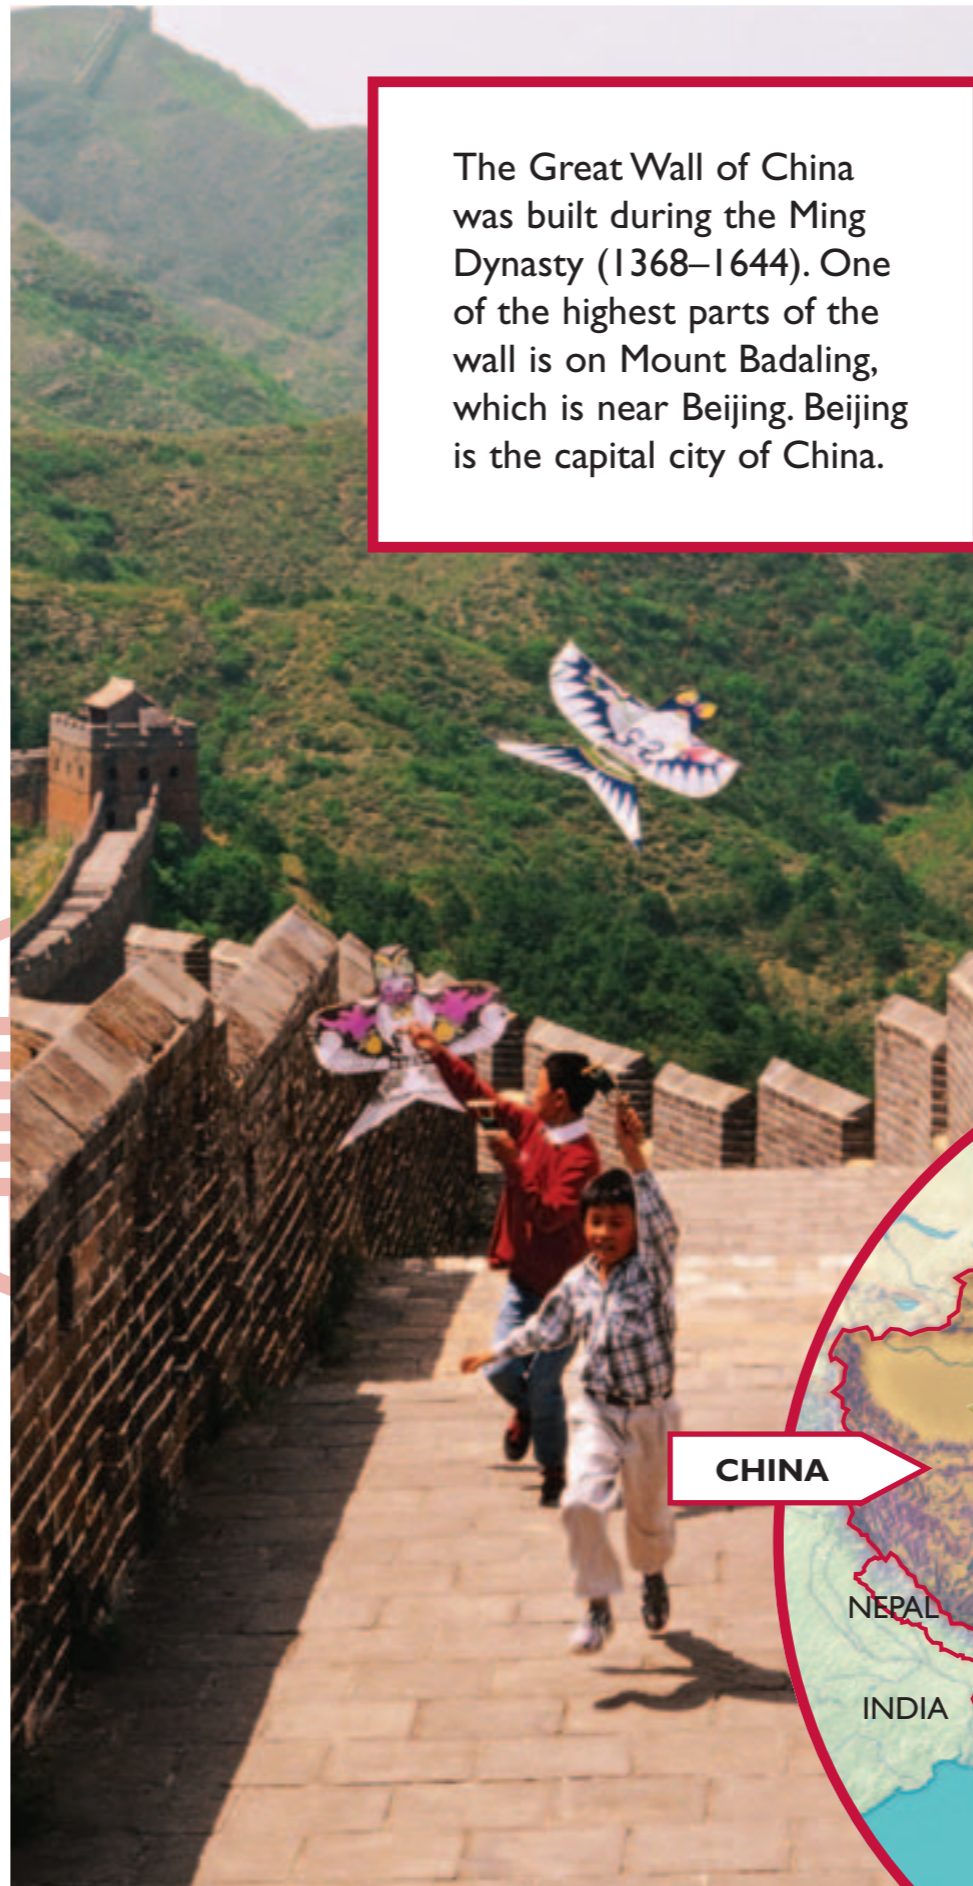

China is the third largest country, in area, in the world. It has high mountains, dry deserts, forests, and farmland. Huge rivers twist and turn from the mountains to the sea.

More people live in China than in any other country in the world. The Chinese can trace the stories of their people back in time for more than 3,000 years.

你好 = How are you?
Ni Hao

This is an outdoor vegetable market in the city of Xi'an. The agriculture industry provides nearly all the food needed to feed China's population.

The Great Wall of China was built during the Ming Dynasty (1368–1644). One of the highest parts of the wall is on Mount Badaling, which is near Beijing. Beijing is the capital city of China.

On the Go!

How do many people get around China's crowded cities?
Go to page 16

What is the most important Chinese festival?
Go to page 19

What useful gifts has China given the world?
Go to page 22

