

Going Global

1965–1969

The Missionaries of Charity became well known in India. People all over the world donated money, medicine, and equipment. New homes and clinics opened around the country. Mother Teresa was even shown on TV. She, and her work, were becoming famous.

*"If you can't feed
a hundred people,
then feed just one."
—Mother Teresa*

In 1965, the Missionaries of Charity began opening homes for the poor in other countries. The first was in Cocolote, Venezuela. There are now homes in more than 30 countries.

Two countries where the Missionaries of Charity run homes for the poor are Venezuela (above) and Tanzania (right).
